

Introduction

As science and technology is growing increasingly, electronic home appliances systems have been developed greatly. Now, you can find various kinds of advance home appliances in the market.

Modern technology such as electronic systems, computerized systems and digital systems has been applied in these appliances extensively. That is why training plays an important role for educational centers to keep step with these quick changes.

Home appliances repairing workshop is designed and produced in 18 sets. The educational objective of these sets is to familiarized trainees with maintenance and training of these appliances and more to familiarize with the mechanism of these appliances. Some of these sets are shown in the images below:

Demonstration model of grinder

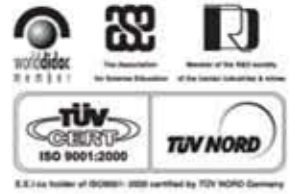

Demonstration model of dishwasher

Repairing workbench of home appliances

○ Home appliances repairing workshop

Repairing workbench of home appliances

Demonstration model of split air conditioner

Demonstration model of steam iron

Demonstration model of vacuum cleaner

Demonstration model of home refrigerator

Demonstration model of double washing machine

Demonstration model of automatic washing machine

Introduction

The electrical training workshop (indoor and industrial wiring) with a multi - purpose ability has attracted interest of educational centers particularly vocational training centers and universities. The educational objectives of this workshop are training theoretical and practical concepts of electrical with applying modern educational equipment. The approach of this workshop is optimum usage of time, equipment and educational area and avoiding danger, economizing in expenses and finally optimizing education quality.

The 7 sub - workshops of this workshop has been produced and presented to educational centers. You can see image of some sets in the following pictures.

Industrial electrical set

Indoor electrical set

Electrical training workshop

A part of fire - alarm set

Electrical training workshop

A part of electrical set (the drawer for keeping tools)

Double side electrical set

Fire - alarm system set

Video door opener set